

Dancing on Ice's Confirms Celebrity Skating Partnerships

Published Fri 08 Nov 2024

Ahead of the brand new series, returning live to ITV1 and ITvX next year, Dancing On Ice can today confirm the 12 celebrities and their skating professional partners ahead of them lacing up their skates and taking to the ice!

The 12 celebrities preparing to embark on the ultimate challenge have been paired with skating professionals who will teach them to master this dangerous new skill in a bid to impress both the ice panel and viewers as they perform live every week.

The couples who are now in training for the 2025 series are;

Dan Edgar and Vanessa James Ferne McCann and Brendyn Hatfield

Mollie Pearce and Colin Grafton Sir Steve Redgrave and Vicky Ogden

Chris Taylor and Vanessa Bauer Charlie Brooks and Eric Radford

Dame Sarah Storey and Sylvain Longchambon Anton Ferdinand and Annette Dytrt

Josh Jones and Tippy Packard Chelsee Healey and Andy Buchanan

Sam Aston and Molly Lanaghan Michaela Strachan and Mark Hanretty

Produced by Lifted Entertainment, Dancing on Ice is back for a sparkling new series with the greatest show on ice promising more glitz, glamour and show stopping performances as the celebrities brave it all to learn this challenging new discipline.

But who has what it takes to master the skill and steps to lift the Dancing On Ice trophy at the end of the series?

END

Press Contacts

sarah.stevens@itv.com

Viewer enquiries

<https://www.itv.com/contact/how-to-get-in-touch>