Second season confirmed for Beat the Chasers on RTL 4

October 1st, 2021 - ITV Studios' quiz show Beat The Chasers has been recommissioned by RTL 4 in the Netherlands. Following the success of the first season, the broadcaster has now licensed the show for a second round. In Beat the Champions, the local title of the show, quiz enthusiasts will have the ultimate chance to compete solo against a team of five super quizzers, hoping to win a large cash prize. Beat The Champions is produced by ITV Studios Netherlands and will air at the end of this year in the prime time slot on RTL 4. While the Dutch are excitedly gearing up for their second season, the UK is already on its fourth series of the spin off, which launched midway September on ITV.

Beat The Chasers is created by Potato, part of ITV Studios and is distributed internationally by ITV Studios. The spin off is currently commissioned in five territories including The Netherlands, Australia, Finland, the UK, and Spain.
