ITV kicks off 2022 with four live FA Cup Third Round matches

The Emirates FA Cup 3rd Round returns to ITV with four live matches on its main channel as Premier League clubs join the competition.

The action includes a mix of lower league clubs taking on sides in the top division, including Swindon Town v Manchester City, Millwall v Crystal Palace and Nottingham Forest v Arsenal as well as the all Premier League clash between West Ham United and Leeds United.

ITV's bumper Sunday coverage, which includes both the West Ham v Leeds and Forest v Arsenal matches, will also include the FA Cup 4th Round draw live.

Full details of coverage are below:

FRIDAY 7 JANUARY 2022

Swindon Town v Manchester City on ITV and ITV Hub - coverage from 7.30pm with 8pm kick-off

SATURDAY 8 JANUARY 2022

Millwall v Crystal Palace on ITV and ITV Hub - coverage from 12 noon with 12.45pm kick-off

SUNDAY 9 JANUARY 2022

West Ham United v Leeds United on ITV and ITV Hub - coverage from 1.30pm with 2.15pm kick-off

Nottingham Forest v Arsenal on ITV and ITV Hub - coverage from 4.30pm with a 5.15pm kick-off

Fourth Round draw to be shown in the build-up at 4,45pm

The BBC will show

Hull City v Everton at 17:30 on BBC One and BBC iPlayer on Saturday 8 January

Manchester United v Aston Villa at 19:55 on BBC One and BBC iPlayer on Monday 10 January
