Starring Roger Allam (Endeavour, The Thick of It), Nancy Carroll (The Crown, Father Brown) and Keala Settle (The Greatest Showman), and based on the books by M.L. Longworth, Murder in Provence follows Antoine Verlaque (Allam), Investigating Judge in Aix-en-Provence, and romantic partner Marine Bonnet (Carroll) as they investigate the murders, mysteries and dark underbelly of their idyllic home. Their efforts are aided by H el ene (Settle), a detective and Antoine's trusted confidante.

Monumental Television, part of ITV Studios, was founded by Oscar nominated film producers Alison Owen and Debra Hayward in 2014.

Murder in Provence is in association with, and distributed internationally by, ITV Studios.

About Monumental Television

Monumental Television was launched in 2014 by Oscar-nominated and BAFTA-winning producers Alison Owen (SUFFRAGETTE, THE OTHER BOLEYN GIRL, JANE EYRE, TEMPLE GRANDIN) and Debra Hayward (HOW TO BUILD A GIRL, LES MIS ERABLES, MARY QUEEN OF SCOTS, BRIDGET JONES' BABY). Strong, female-driven stories make up Monumental's television slate, which includes three series of Hulu's critically acclaimed HARLOTS, starring Samantha Morton, Lesley

Manville, Jessica Brown Findlay and Liv Tyler. In 2021, series three of Monumental's comedy series GHOSTS aired on BBC One to rave reviews, and series four is currently in pre-production. A US version of GHOSTS was picked up to series by CBS and aired in 2021. Hayward and Owen were also Executive Producers on Netflix's ANNE WITH AN E (2017-2020), adapted by Emmy award-winning writer Moira Walley-Beckett from the children's classic Anne of Green Gables.
