UEFA Women's Champions League Final watched by a peak of 372,000 on ITV4

The UEFA Women's Champions League Final was watched by a live peak audience of 372,000 on ITV4 on Saturday night [21 May].

Following a deal announced last week with rights holders DAZN, the match between Barcelona and Lyon was made available free to air on ITV4 and ITV Hub.

Coverage of the match, which took place at the Juventus Stadium in Turin between Barcelona and Lyon, was presented by Mark Pougatch with insight and analysis from former England internationals, Rachel Yankey and Anita Asante.
