Love Island - Paige Thorne

Love Island reveals cast of series 8

Name: Paige Thorne

Age: 24

From: Swansea

Occupation: Paramedic

Why Love Island and why now?

In Swansea there is just no-one I can find, I've tried and there's just nobody there anymore. I need to break out and broaden my horizons and Love Island just brings everyone together for me. I haven't got to go out and I haven't got to swipe. So, hopefully they can just come to me now!

What do you think you're going to bring to the Villa?

Just positive energy, lots of bubbly energy. I am a good cook and I'm quite mumsy so I'll look after anyone that needs looking after. If I had to pick a signature dish, it would probably be a Sunday dinner. My roasties are up there, I think Gordon Ramsay would be impressed - I think he would be like '9/10 or 10/10'.

Why would you say you're single at the moment?

I came out of a relationship and I was just so done with guys so was like, "Right, that's it. I'm going to focus on me." Then I was like, "Ok, I'm bored now, I'm lonely and I miss love and the connection and everything else." I've been on a few dates but I just haven't clicked with anyone.
