Love Island - Indiyah Polack

Love Island reveals cast of series 8

Name: Indiyah Polack

Age: 23

From: London

Occupation: Hotel Waitress

Why Love Island and why now?

I feel like I'm at a stage in my life now where I'm ready to meet new people and start dating properly. I have been single for some time and I feel like for my generation of people, it's quite hard to date without being influenced by social media and stuff like that. Love Island particularly is like a closed space and I think it is a great place to get to know someone one-on-one and build a real connection.

What do you think you are going to bring to the Villa?

I feel like I'm going to bring a lot of flavour and vibrancy. I feel like I'm quite a down to earth person, so it shouldn't be an issue to meet a lover or a friend.

How would you sum up your dating history?

Random. Everyone I've dated have all been quite different. I don't think I have ever been out with two guys who are quite the same.
