Why Love Island and why now?

My dating life has been a shambles. This is an opportunity for me to find 'the one' and have a great summer at the same time. I'm definitely ready for a relationship. I'm 23 now so I'm ready to get to know someone, go on holidays and travel with them.

How would your family and friends describe you?

They would definitely describe me as wild. I can get very wild on a night out, I'm definitely a party animal. I love my prosecco and to have a dance - I'm always on the dance floor. I'm very loyal to my friends and family, I'll always have their backs. I'm the type of person to put others before me. They would definitely say I'm a nap queen - I love napping! I think they'd also say I'm inspirational because of my hearing and my cochlear implant. I inspire quite a lot of people because I'm really open about it.

How competitive are you? How do you feel about treading on toes?

It's a tough one because I'm a girls' girl but it is a dating show and I'm here to find my man. I may have to step on toes but I'll do it in the nicest way possible.
