Name: Davide Sanclimenti

Age: 27

From: Rome, Italy (lives in Manchester)

Why Love Island and why now?

I think Love Island is going to be so much fun. I'm going to be the Italian stallion in the Villa! With my Italian charm, I can also be a very romantic guy. I'm good looking and I've realised since I first arrived in Manchester, a lot of English girls actually love me. They love to be around me and I love to be around them. It's going to be fun, I'm looking forward to it. I want to find my soulmate, find my person so I can actually build something in the future, grow with them, be a family.

What do you think you're going to bring to the Villa?

My personality and my Italian charm. I'm 27 now, I'm getting serious about my life and my goals. My biggest dream is to find someone I can spend the rest of my life with.

How would your friends and family describe you?

They would say that I've got a good heart, I'm a very deep person. For the people around me, I'm always there, ready to support and help them in a moment of need.
