Chef Gordon Ramsay today confirmed he will be joined by two world renowned chefs for the ultimate cooking competition, Next Level Chef.

Joining Ramsay on this culinary journey and to help mentor the contestants are Michelin Star Chef and Gordon's former protege, Paul Ainsworth and American Chef and breakout star of Next Level Chef US, Nyesha Arrington.

The set is being built and the ovens are firing up but will everyone be able to handle the heat?

Next Level Chef will air on ITV and ITVX next year.
