ITV to show four Emirates FA Cup third round ties

ITV kicks off the New Year with four Emirates FA Cup ties across the first full weekend of 2023 as Premier League clubs join the competition in the Third Round Proper.

A packed four days of live, free to air FA Cup action across ITV begins on Friday 6 January with the evening clash between Manchester United and Everton, followed on Saturday night with another all Premier League showdown which sees Liverpool host Wolverhampton Wanderers. Then Championship side Cardiff City take on Premier League Leeds United on Sunday afternoon, before, on Monday evening, League One club Oxford United will attempt a giant-killing feat as they face an Arsenal side that currently top the Premier League.
