Lingo

Series 3

Lingo is back! The hit word-game hosted by Adil Ray where the simplest of words can win members of the public thousands of pounds.

In each show, three pairs of contestants go head-to-head in a battle of words. Using their powers of deduction, they must correctly and quickly work out the words that appear in the Lingo grids and Puzzlewords.

Through three tense rounds the pairs are whittled down to one successful couple. That winning pair then play in a nail-biting end game where they have the opportunity to win the money they've banked earlier in the show, potentially doubling their winnings.

However, in the dramatic finale nothing is guaranteed, and they could end up going home with absolutely nothing, or win thousands of pounds.

Returns Monday 2nd January at 4pm, and then 3pm on weekdays from Tuesday 3rd January.
