The Dry Series 2

Full series drop on ITVX on Thursday 14th March

ITVX

Award-winning playwright and BAFTA-nominated screenwriter Nancy Harris and acclaimed director Paddy Breathnach return to helm the second series of the critically popular show.

Roisin Gallagher also returns as recovering alcoholic Shiv Sheridan alongside regular cast members from the first series as the second series picks up seven months on from the events of the first and we now meet the Sheridans in their new normal. It seems like the family is relatively content to all outward appearances: Shiv's been sober, celibate, and solvent for six months, Ant has hung onto his job at the estate agent's and his relationship with Max, and Caroline's making up for a lost time by having sex with everyone she meets on Tinder. So far, so normal... or is it? After all, how normal is it for three grown adults to still be living at home with their parents, and are the Sheridans really happy with this new status quo, or have they just rearranged their dysfunction and found another groove of denial to fit into?
